The DEAFMETAL® Story

When Finnish jewellery and fashion designer, Jenni Ahtiainen, accepted that she needed hearing aids in 2018, she was most horrified by the thought of wearing anything that didn't suit her own style.

Rather than hide her hearing aids, she "funk'd them up". After proudly posting some photos on social media, her posts went viral and DEAFMETAL was born.

Her designs have been worn by celebrities around the globe and partnered with distributors in more than 20 countries across the world.
